IN HONOR OF NOXAH PALOMO

Local Newtown Square resident 13 year old Sammy Bradly who was diagnosed with AML Leukemia spent 6 months in the hospital battling his disease. While in the hospital he met another boy who was diagnosed with the same Leukemia, Noxah Palomo. They became best friends and battled their Cancer together, NEVER giving up. They were both in remission when the unthinkable happened. Noxah's cancer returned. Noxah now needs a Bone Marrow Transplant and Sammy needs your help to find him a match.
